Added Tag

Added a missing tag [0x0020][0x9158] Frame Comments to the dictionary.

HTTP Response Length

Fixed an error in the way the HTTP response length was calculated. The length of the String to be returned was used to encode the content length value in the header, but in the case of a JSON result that contained multibyte characters, the number of bytes didn't match the length of the String and this could cause a JSON parsing error on the client.
